

Assembly of European Christian Environmental Network

Every part of Creation Matters

Roskilde (Denmark), 31 August - 3 September 2023

	Thursday 31 August	Friday September 1	Saturday 2 September	Sunday 3 September
8.45 - 9.00	Arrival of participants Meeting of ECEN Leadership team	Morning prayer	Morning prayer	Worship service
9.00 - 10.30		Every part of creation matters - theological concerns Keynote presentations by Bishop Emeritus Peter Fischer-Møller, Church of Denmark prof. Else Marie Wiberg Pedersen, University of Aarhus prof. Nikolaos Asproulis, Volos Academy for Theological studies	Future of ECEN Plenary discussion
10.30 - 11.00		Coffee / Tea	Discussion in regional groups
11.00 - 12.30		Every part of creation matters - Churches in dialogue with politics Marianne Bigum, member of the Danish Parliament, vice-chair of the parliaments climate, energy and utility committee Kees Nieuwert, Christian Council of Churches in the Netherlands, Kenneth Mtata, World Council of Churches a voice of youth	Discussion in thematic groups
12.30 - 14.00		Lunch	Lunch
14.00 - 15.00	Welcome of participants Registration Coffee/Tea	Discussion in thematic groups	A sustainable future in the perspective of youth Session prepared in cooperation with EYCE & WSCF-E	Departures
15.00 - 15.30		Coffee / Tea	Coffee / Tea
15.30 - 16.30	Opening of the Assembly Plenary	Celebration of Season of creation Opening ecumenical worksip service launching the Season of creation 2023	Care of creation in European churches Outcomes of regional nad thematic groups + Open forum
16.30 - 16.45	25th anniversary of ECEN	Break	Break
17.00 - 18.00		Excursion Local church initiatives in taking care for a sustainable future	Where do we go from now? Conclusions Final plenary
18.00 - 19.30	Dinner	Dinner	Dinner
19.30 - 21.00	Evening prayer in the cathedral & Welcome by the bishop of Roskilde Ulla Thorbjørn Hansen	Care of creation in churches' work in Denmark	Festive evening	